

OUR DIGITAL TRAINING CENTRE

Our English language training centre is based in the heart of Kigali. The digitalisation of the economy is transforming all working environments and all professions. Who doesn't need to use digital tools in their activity today?

Support functions (administrative assistants, secretaries, accountants, etc.) are particularly concerned, as are many other professions: from receptionists to warehouse workers, from salespeople to home helpers, etc.

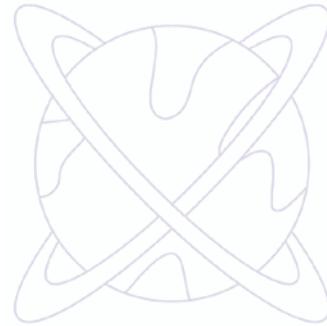

Digital tools are present in all activities. We offer a wide range of digital skills courses. At the end of the course, candidates will be able to

1. Master the Office Pack
2. Use collaborative work tools
3. Diagnose and solve common computer problems
4. Protect, secure and maintain their digital environment
5. Use digital tools for professional purposes

Our trainers define with the students their objectives and test their level during an initial evaluation in order to propose a personalised Digital Skills programme, both in terms of content and pace.

AJP NETWORK CENTER L.T.D is this platform demystifying the English language and Digital Skills at the deepest level of its roots while enabling Africans to master it as a key to open doors with style and excellence. With the reality of globalization with English and Digital as the ONLY or most used bridge to transfer and receive Knowledge, it is so obvious that yearly the number of new high school graduates, professionals in need to update their skills increases.

Our mission

The English language and digital skills in the 21st century are more than important , it is a key. A key to open doors of studies, business and continental interconnectedness to lead up to financial, social and political growth on the continent and in the world. We thus implement our mission through our training offered.

Our vision is to train and empower an army of African students and professionals who with a high understanding and mastery of the English language and digital skills will go all over the world starting in Africa to study the best practical strategies in diverse fields and comeback to Africa to contribute to its very development.

Our objectives are based on three remarks: the loss of great opportunities by so many professionals all over the continent. For this specific group of people, we provide the appropriate environment to re-invent them and take their professional careers to an international level with the mastery of the English language and digital skills for business purposes.

Our motto: Integrity, knowledge and progress

Our aim is to enable our learners to :

- Acquire real language or digital skills and use them in real-life contexts
- Learn about English and digital culture
- Develop confidence in speaking, listening, reading and writing
- Have highly qualified and experienced teachers as instructors
- Enjoy interactive and fun lessons with clear objectives.
